

Fund objectives and investment policy

The fund aims to provide capital growth.

The fund will have exposure to a broad range of commodities, across the energy, metals and agriculture sectors. The fund is designed to give investors exposure to commodities. The investment team aim to identify investment opportunities across these sectors, conducting in-depth research to select the best investments. The fund will predominantly gain its exposure to commodities through investment in financial derivative instruments and, to a lesser extent, shares of companies, bonds, foreign currency, money market instruments and hold cash on deposit. The fund will not acquire any physical commodities directly. Derivatives may be used to achieve the investment objective and to reduce risk or manage the fund more efficiently. This alternative investment organisation does not comply with the limits set forth for UCITS, which might translate into an increased risk for investors. The fund will invest in commodity related instruments worldwide.

This fund does not have the objective of sustainable investment or binding environmental or social characteristics as defined by Regulation (EU) 2019/2088 on Sustainability-related Disclosures in the Financial Services Sector (the "SFDR"). Any references to the integration of sustainability considerations are made in relation to the processes of the investment manager or the Schroders Group and are not specific to the fund.

Relevant risks associated with an investment in this fund are shown below and should be carefully considered before making any investment. Past Performance is not a guide to future performance and may not be repeated. The value of investments and the income from them may go down as well as up and investors may not get back the amounts originally invested. Exchange rate changes may cause the value of investments to fall as well as rise. Performance data does not take into account any commissions and costs, if any, charged when units or shares of any fund, as applicable, are issued and redeemed.

Risk considerations

Performance risk: Investment objectives express an intended result but there is no guarantee that such a result will be achieved. Depending on market conditions and the macro economic environment, investment objectives may become more difficult to achieve.

Derivatives risk - efficient portfolio management: Derivatives may be used to manage the portfolio efficiently. A derivative may not perform as expected, may create losses greater than the cost of the derivative and may result in losses to the fund. Concentration risk: The fund may be concentrated in a limited number of geographical regions, industry sectors, markets and/or individual positions. This may result in large changes in the value of the fund, both up or down.

Counterparty risk: The fund may have contractual agreements with counterparties. If a counterparty is unable to fulfil their obligations, the sum that they owe to the fund may be lost in part or in whole.

Currency risk: The fund may lose value as a result of movements in foreign exchange rates.

Derivatives risk: Derivatives may be used to manage the portfolio efficiently. The fund may also materially invest in derivatives including using short selling and leverage techniques with the aim of making a return. A derivative may not perform as expected, may create losses greater than the cost of the derivative and may result in losses to the fund.

IBOR risk: The transition of the financial markets away from the use of interbank offered rates (IBORs) to alternative reference rates may impact the valuation of certain holdings and disrupt liquidity in certain instruments. This may impact the investment performance of the fund.

Liquidity risk: In difficult market conditions, the fund may not be able to sell a security for full value or at all. This could affect performance and could cause the fund to defer or suspend redemptions of its shares.

Market risk: The value of investments can go up and down and an investor may not get back the amount initially invested.

Operational risk: Operational processes, including those related to the safekeeping of assets, may fail. This may result in losses to the fund.

Performance risk: Investment objectives express an intended result but there is no guarantee that such a result will be achieved. Depending on market conditions and the macro economic environment, investment objectives may become more difficult to achieve.
