Investment Manager's Report

Economic review

The six months continued to be dominated by the prospects for inflation and interest rates. The US Federal Reserve (Fed) raised interest rates three times in the period, taking the Fed Funds rate to 5.00-5.75%. The hikes came despite turmoil in the US banking sector in March, when three regional lenders collapsed. One of these – Silicon Valley Bank – was a key lender to the technology sector and start-ups in particular.

Another cause for investor worry was the US debt ceiling, which represents the amount the US government can borrow. However, a deal was reached early June to suspend the debt limit until 2025.

The Fed paused its rate rises in June, and data for May showed that US inflation was cooling. However, core inflation remained above the Fed's target rate and the labour market was still strong with unemployment at only 3.6% in May, suggesting further rate hikes may be required.

The European economy experienced a mild recession over the winter months, with GDP contracting by -0.1% in both Q4 2022 and Q1 2023. That represented resilience compared to earlier fears over what a lack of Russian natural gas (as a result of the Ukraine war) could mean for the region's growth. The European Central Bank enacted four interest rate rises.

During the period the European Commission proposed its Green Deal Industrial Plan. This aims to provide support for scaling up the EU's manufacturing capacity for the net-zero technologies and products, and came in response to the US Inflation Reduction Act passed the previous year.

In the UK inflation remained elevated. In June, the Bank of England accelerated the pace of its interest rate rises with a 50 basis point increase to 5.0%. Japan saw a return of moderate inflation but, unlike in other developed markets, this did not result in increased interest rates. Kazuo Ueda took over as governor of the Bank of Japan.

In emerging markets, the six-month period began with enthusiasm over the prospects for China amid its economic re-opening after dropping its zero-Covid policy in late December 2022. However, as the period wore on it became clear that Chinese growth was falling short of expectations.

Equity market review

Global equity markets made gains despite fears that rising inflation and interest rates could lead to recession in many developed markets. However, the resilient economic backdrop and some robust corporate earnings helped markets move higher. The MSCI World index returned 15.1% (in US dollars).

The information technology sector led the gains with semiconductor stocks in particular performing well. This came in the wake of the release of Chat GPT and a wave of investor enthusiasm about the potential uses of generative artificial intelligence (AI). Other sectors registering a strong advance included consumer discretionary and communication services. Laggards were energy and utilities.

From a regional point of view, Japanese shares were very strong with a 22.7% advance in yen terms. The return of moderate inflation is welcome for Japan after years of stagnant or falling prices. In addition, the Tokyo Stock Exchange called on companies to improve their corporate value. US and Europe ex UK shares also performed well. UK shares were weak compared to other developed markets with weaker commodity prices weighing on some of the large energy and mining stocks.

Emerging markets (EM) underperformed their developed market counterparts over the period. The MSCI EM index returned 4.9% (in US dollars). This was largely due to weakness in Chinese shares amid an anaemic economic recovery.

Fixed income market review

The first quarter of the year began with positive sentiment on the growth outlook. But there was also evidence that the encouraging inflation picture was starting to reverse as core inflation measures ticked higher once more.

However, the collapse of Silicon Valley Bank in mid-March dwarfed concerns over re-accelerating inflation and prompted a sharp rally in government bond markets. As markets reacted to fears of a banking crisis, government bond markets went from pricing in rate hikes to discounting sizeable rate cuts in some markets.

The second quarter of 2023 then saw a significant drop in market volatility. With the exception of the Bank of Japan, all major developed market central banks kept raising interest rates over the six-month period.

The 10-year US Treasury yield edged lower from 3.83% to 3.81% while the US 2-year yield increased from 4.40% to 4.87%. The UK saw some larger moves as inflation remained more elevated than in other markets and investors began to expect interest rates to peak at a higher level. The UK 10-year yield increased from 3.67% to 4.39% and the 2-year yield from 3.71% to 5.26%. The German 10-year yield fell from 2.56% to 2.39%.

Corporate balance sheets remained relatively strong, despite some uptick in default rates towards the end of the period. Global high yield outperformed global investment grade.

Outlook

As central banks continue to raise interest rates, signs are appearing that the impact is starting to be felt. Manufacturing activity is trending downwards, especially in Europe and Asia. Meanwhile, services continue to rebound, probably as households continue to rebalance their spending patterns back to pre-pandemic norms.

The Schroders Economics Team forecasts global GDP growth of 2.4% for this year and 1.9% in 2024. This represents an upward revision for this year, mostly driven by upgrades to the US forecast. US households have proven to be more resilient, which in turn has allowed companies to pass on more of their costs through price increases, but has also allowed them to keep hiring, re-enforcing a robust labour market.

Net Asset Value

Calculation of Net Asset Value per Share

The Net Asset Value ('NAV') per Share of each Class is calculated on each Dealing Day in the currency of the relevant class. It is calculated by dividing the NAV attributable to each Class, being the proportionate value of its assets less its liabilities, by the number of Shares of such Class then in issue. The resulting sum is rounded to the nearest four decimal places. Further details on rules that apply in valuing total assets can be found in the current prospectus.

Valuation of the Assets of the Company

The value of securities, derivative instruments and assets is determined on the last day on which prices were calculated. The basis for this value uses the available price at the valuation point for each Sub Fund on the stock exchange or any other regulated market on which those securities or assets are traded or admitted for trading. Where such securities or other assets are quoted or dealt in on more than one stock exchange or any other regulated market, the Directors shall make regulations for the order of priority in which stock exchanges or other regulated markets shall be used for the provision of prices of securities or other assets.

If a security is not traded on or admitted to any official stock exchange or any other regulated market or, in the case of securities so traded or admitted, the price does not reflect their true value, the Directors are required to proceed on the basis of their expected sales price, which shall be valued with prudence and in good faith.

The value of any cash in hand or on deposit, bills and demand notes and accounts receivable, prepaid expenses, cash dividends and interest declared or accrued as aforesaid and not yet received shall be deemed to be the full amount thereof, unless in any case the same is unlikely to be paid or received in full, in which case the value thereof shall be arrived at after making such discount as the Company may consider appropriate in such case to reflect the true value thereof.

Financial derivative instruments, which are not listed on any official stock exchange or any other regulated market, are valued in accordance with market practice. The swaps are valued at their fair value based on the underlying securities at close of business or intraday) as well as on the characteristics of the underlying commitments.

Liquid assets and money market instruments held within the liquidity Sub-Funds are usually valued on an amortised cost basis.

Units or shares in open-ended undertakings for collective investment are valued on the basis of the latest available reported Net Asset Value. The latest reported Net Asset Value may be adjusted to reflect market movements since the date of the report in accordance with adjustment methods as determined by the Management Company. Purchases and sales of investments are recognised on the trade date.

If any of the aforesaid valuation principles do not reflect the valuation method commonly used in specific markets or if any such valuation principles do not seem accurate for the purpose of determining the value of the Company's assets, the Directors may fix different valuation principles in good faith and in accordance with generally accepted valuation principles and procedures.

Any assets or liabilities in currencies other than the base currency of the Sub-Funds are converted using the relevant spot rate quoted by a bank or other responsible financial institution.

The Directors are authorised, to the extent allowed by applicable law, to apply other appropriate valuation principles for the assets of the Sub-Funds and/or the assets of a given Share Class if the aforesaid valuation methods appear impossible or inappropriate due to extraordinary circumstances or events.

As of 30 June 2023, fair valuation was applied to the following securities:

Security Name	Sub-Fund
GTLK Europe DAC, Reg. S 5.125% 31/05/2024	Schroder SSF Fixed Maturity Bond VI
ThomasLloyd Energy Impact Trust plc	Schroder SSF Sustainable Diversified Alternative Assets

Swing Pricing Adjustment

A Sub-Fund may suffer dilution of the Net Asset Value per Share due to investors buying or selling Shares in a Sub-Fund at a price that does not reflect the dealing and other costs that arise when security trades are undertaken by the Investment Manager to accommodate cash inflows or outflows. In order to counter this impact, a Swing Pricing mechanism may be adopted to protect the interests of Shareholders of the Sub-Fund. If on any Valuation date, the aggregate net transactions in Shares of a Sub-Fund exceed a pre-determined threshold, as determined and reviewed for each Sub-Fund on a periodic basis by the Directors, the Net Asset Value per Share may be adjusted upwards or downwards to reflect net inflows and net outflows respectively.

The net inflows and net outflows will be determined by the Management Company based on the latest available information at the time of calculation of the Net Asset Value per Share. The extent of the price adjustment will be set by the Management Company to reflect dealing and other costs. Such adjustment may vary from sub-fund to sub-fund and in normal market conditions is not expected to exceed 2% of the unadjusted Net Asset Value per Share of the relevant Fund on any Dealing Day. However, under unusual or exceptional market conditions (such as significant market volatility, market disruption or significant economic contraction, a terrorist attack or war (or other hostilities), a pandemic or other health crisis, or a natural disaster), the Management Company may decide, on a temporary basis, to adjust the Net Asset Value of a Fund by more than 2% when such a decision is justified as being in the best interests of the shareholders. Any such decision to adjust the Net Asset Value by more than 2% will be published on the following website: www.schroders.com/en/lu/.

The mechanism has been implemented in the Company from 24 August 2009.

Fair Value Pricing

In accordance with the provisions of the current prospectus, fair value pricing may be implemented to protect the interests of the Company's Shareholders against market timing practices. Accordingly, if a Sub-Fund is primarily invested in markets that are closed for business at the time the Sub-Fund is valued, the Directors may, during periods of market volatility and by derogation from the provisions above under 'Calculation of Net Asset Value per share', cause the Sub-Fund Administrator to allow for the Net Asset Value per share to be adjusted to reflect more accurately the fair value of the Sub-Fund's investments at the point of valuation. The level of adjustment is based upon a systematic process involving a multi-factor regression approach that incorporates global, regional and security specific factors up until the point of valuation. The Directors, however, reserve the right to extend the implementation of fair value pricing in respect of other Sub-Funds wherever they deem it appropriate.
